CCS New England Recognized by DiversityBusiness.com as a Top Women and Diversity Owned Business

NASHUA, N.H. – (April 27, 2011) – CCS New England, an audio visual systems integrator today announced its recognition in the 10th Annual National Business Awards by DiversityBusiness.com, the largest organization of diversity owned businesses throughout the United States.

DiversityBusiness.com recognized CCS New England in four different categories:

- Top 100 Subcontinent Asian American Businesses in the U.S
- Top 100 8(a) Businesses in the U.S
- Top 50 Women Owned Businesses in Massachusetts
- Top 50 Diversity Owned Businesses in Massachusetts

Each year DiversityBusiness.com collects and compiles the 'Top Business List' on a state and national basis. The data is used to determine the top businesses and the most successful entrepreneur's across the United States. These businesses and individuals become part of DiversityBusiness.com's Div50 awards program. Making the list puts selected company names in front of Fortune 500 companies, Government Agencies and College/Universities looking to do business with women, diversity and small businesses.

"We're proud to be recognized by DiversityBusiness.com for the 10th consecutive year," said Cheryl Gamst, president and owner of CCS New England. "Through these programs, we're able to connect with more organizations that want to bring audio visual technologies into their companies to help them improve their communication and efficiencies."

CCS New England serves customers in the corporate, government and education sectors. The company sells, installs, services, and trains clients to use audio visual technology and equipment. CCS offers multiple product lines to enhance presentation effectiveness and customer experiences including SMART Board™ interactive whiteboards, NEC, Panasonic and Samsung displays, Crestron, AMX and Extron room control systems, Epson, NEC and Mitsubishi projectors, Tandberg and Polycom video conference systems and Da-Lite projection screens.
